

Underused Housing Tax (UHT)

Quick Reference Chart

The new Underused Housing Tax (UHT) imposes a 1% annual tax on the value of residential real estate considered to be vacant or underused that is owned on December 31 of each year. The government indicated that the tax would target property owned by non-Canadians; however, the scope of filing requirements extends to many Canadian entities and individuals, including private corporations, and trustees of a trust. Filings and taxes are due on April 30 of each year.<sup>1</sup>

STEP 1: Are you subject to the UHT rules?

Were you the legal owner (the person/entity registered on title), jointly or otherwise, of a residential property in Canada as of December 31?

If so, go to STEP 2. If not, you are not subject to the UHT Act.

STEP 2: Are you required to file an annual return?

Excluded owners are not required to file a UHT return.

Excluded owners include:

- Canadian citizens or permanent residents (under the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act)
  - o individuals that hold an interest in the property as a partner of a partnership or as a trustee of a trust (except personal representatives of a deceased individual [ex. executor of an individual's will]) are carved out of this exclusion
- corporations that are both incorporated under the laws of Canada or a province and listed on a Canadian stock exchange (that is, private corporations are not excluded owners)
- registered charities
- cooperative housing corporations
- municipalities, Indigenous governing bodies, or corporations owned by such entities
- the Government of Canada and government of a province, or an agent of either
- various forms of publicly-traded trusts
- certain other public service bodies (e.g. universities, public colleges, school authorities, hospital authorities)

If you are an excluded owner, you have no obligations or liabilities. If you are not an excluded owner (CRA refers to these persons as “affected owners”), you must file a UHT return by April 30 – go to STEP 3.

STEP 3: Are you required to pay the UHT?

If you meet any one of the exemptions set out below under four broad categories, no tax will be payable when you file your return.

3A – Type of Owner of the Property:

- a specified Canadian corporation – where foreign owners (corporations incorporated or continued outside the laws of Canada or a province and individuals that are not Canadian citizens nor permanent residents) do not own or control, directly or indirectly, 10% or more of the corporation (by share value or voting rights)

- a specified Canadian partnership – where each member is, on Dec. 31, an excluded owner or a specified Canadian corporation
- a specified Canadian trust – where each beneficiary that has a beneficial interest in the property is, on Dec. 31, an excluded owner or a specified Canadian corporation
- new owner – owner acquired the property in the year and was not an owner of that property at any time in the prior 9 years
- owner died in the year or prior year
- the personal representative of a deceased individual (exemption applies for the year of death and subsequent year) and the person was not an owner of the property in either of the years
- a co-owner of a property where another co-owner held at least 25% of the property at their death (exemption applies for the year of death and subsequent year)

3B – Availability of the Property:

- if the property is under construction and is not substantially completed before April of the year
- if construction of the property is substantially completed between January 1 and March 31, the property is put for sale to the public during the year and the property was never occupied by an individual as a place of residence during the year
- property is not suitable to be lived in year-round or seasonably inaccessible due to public access not maintained year-round
- property is uninhabitable (at least 60 continuous days in the year) due to a disaster or hazardous conditions (this exemption is only available for a maximum of two years in respect of the same disaster)
- property is uninhabitable (at least 120 consecutive days in the year) due to ongoing major renovations (this exemption is only available once every 10 years)

3C – Occupant of the Property:

- primary place of residence for the year of the individual, their spouse or common-law partner, or their child attending a designated learning institution
- one of the following individuals continuously occupies the property for a period of at least a month (qualifying occupancy), for a total of at least 180 days in the year
  - an arm's length individual who occupies the property under a written agreement
  - a non-arm's length individual who occupies the property under a written agreement and pays at least fair rent (5% of the value of the property)
  - the owner or their spouse or common-law partner, while the individual is in Canada for work, and the occupancy relates to that purpose
  - the owner or their spouse or common-law partner, parent or child who is a Canadian citizen or permanent resident

3D – Location and Use of the Property:

- vacation property located in an eligible area of Canada (certain areas that are more rural) and used by the owner or their spouse or common-law partner for at least 28 days in the year

If you do not meet any exemptions, go to STEP 4. If you meet at least one exemption, go to STEP 5.

STEP 4: Calculate the tax.

The UHT is 1% of the greater of the property's assessed value for the year for property tax purposes and the most recent sale price, applied to the ownership percentage. An owner can also elect to use the property's fair market value as determined at any time during the year and up to April 30 of the following year. CRA requires an appraisal with specific parameters to use this election.

STEP 5: File the annual return and pay the tax (if no exemption is met) by April 30.

Those who are required to file should contact our office to prepare and file their Form UHT-2900, Underused Housing Tax Return and Election Form. A separate return is required for each owner of each property. Individual owners that fail to file the return on time are subject to a minimum $5,000 penalty, while corporations are subject to a minimum $10,000 penalty. Additional penalties can apply to the filings under various circumstances, including loss of access to the exemptions under Paragraphs 6(7)(c) to (f) and Subsections 6(8) and (9) (not usable for the full year, uninhabitable, primary place of residence and qualifying occupancy) when computing the penalty tax if the return is not filed by December 31 of the following year. There is no time limit for CRA to assess the UHT tax liabilities, penalties and interest where taxpayers fail to file a required return.

<sup>1</sup> If April 30 falls on a weekend or statutory holiday, CRA generally considers payments and elections are made on time if they receive them by the next business day.
